

DIANE MARIE KRÄMER

Diane Marie Krämer is an intuition-based fine artist working in sculpture, photography and painting. Her work is conceived from within. Just as nature shapes through time its landscapes, she too has been shaped by past experiences.

She has exhibited her artwork professionally in selected, group and solo shows across the United States and Europe. Not only is Diane a studio artist but she is also a teaching artist who has experience instructing in different genres in private and public schools, universities and art centers. She has been gifted by having students of all ages and has a special focus on teaching people with disabilities.
